

Town of Fountain Hills Presents

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL UMPIRE

Thursday, November 6 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Pre-registration required – Course #1194

Free for members $5.00 non-member fee

Presentation is held at the Fountain Hills Community Center

Presentation Description:

How does one become a major league baseball umpire? Learn the arduous process and steps involved to make it into Major League Baseball.

Additional topics will include:

A Day in the Life of a Professional Umpire;

Major League Baseball's Observation and Evaluation Process for Their Umpire Staff.

About the Presenters:

Jeff Macias: 9 years in Professional Baseball; 2 years of MLB Spring Training; Current Pac12, WAC, and Mountain West conference umpire; ACCAC Trainer/Evaluator; 20 years of umpiring experience.

Travis Katzenmeier: 13 years in Professional Baseball; 200+ Regular season MLB games; Current Pac 12, WAC, and NCAA Postseason umpire; Worked 2011 College World Series; MLB Umpire Observer. Worked the 2014 NCAA CWS as well.

Stop by the Community Center Mon. – Fri. 9a.m. to 4p.m. to reserve your seat.

The views expressed by speaker do not necessarily represent the views of the Town of Fountain Hills.

By sponsoring this event, the Town of Fountain Hills is in no way endorsing the content of the materials

Sponsored by the Town of Fountain Hills Activity Center
13001 N. La Montana (in the Community Center) 480-816-5226

www.fh.az.gov

c:\users\kfonville\appdata\local\microsoft\windows\temporary internet
files\content.outlook\2om0e3p1\adayinthelifeofaprofessionalbaseballumpire.doc

Town of Fountain Hills Presents

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL UMPIRE

presented or any product or service offered by the speaker.

Sponsored by the Town of Fountain Hills Activity Center
13001 N. La Montana (in the Community Center) 480-816-5226

www.fh.az.gov

c:\users\kfonville\appdata\local\microsoft\windows\temporary internet
files\content.outlook\2om0e3p1\adayinthelifeofaprofessionalbaseballumpire.doc